Class of '57

And we did have a great time! We were fortunate to have our very own Travel Advisor in the person of Marilyn (Engnes) Wierschke. We had no worries – she saw to everything.

We set sail from the Port of San Pedro in Los Angeles, CA. on Friday, April 27, 2007. On Saturday we wandered the open air market of Ensenada, MX, but for the major part of the trip we passed the weekend catching up on 50 years of marriages, children, and careers while relaxing aboard the luxury ship Monarch of the Seas.

One evening we were joined by a pod of gray whales, spouting spray from their blow-holes. They appeared suddenly alongside the ship and for a while swam like sentinels beside us. They soon tired of the assignment and quietly sank into the depths.

This was the first ever reunion for our class and some of us had not seen each other since Graduation Day in Mobridge.
